Day 1 Individual arrival at Assisi

Assisi is a Unesco Heritage site. It is overlooking the Valle Umbra and it is a place in which history, traditions and art are harmoniously combined. A leisurely stroll through the town first is a good way to start your holiday. Take your time to absorb the town's atmosphere. Sit down on one of the cosy squares, where cafés are inviting you and enjoy an ice cream, cappuccino or a good glass of local wine. There is much to see: the Basilicas of St. Francis and of St. Clare, the fortress, museums and the Roman Forum. Overnight stay in a * or  star hotel

Day 2 Assisi - Spoleto

Along the panoramic road 'Via degli Olivi' (olive grove road) you reach Spello, a charming ancient town pleasantly situated on the southern slopes of Mount Subasio. In urban, architectural and artistic terms, Spello is an extremely interesting town, containing many features dating back to the Roman age. Spello is also called the town of flowers, because of its many colourful little alleys embellished with plants and flowers. The town is well known for its Flower Festival ('infiorata') for Corpus Domini. From Spello you descend in the valley and it goes up to Foligno, which contains a good number of interesting monuments and artworks, but has also a nice 'restaurant road' and is a local shopping centre. Quiet country roads and the Assisi-Spoleto cycle path bring you to Spoleto, a pretty hill-town filled with beautiful medieval and Renaissance architecture and there are also very interesting museums. An evergreen woodland and a hilly countryside surround the town. Your  or * hotel is situated in the historical centre of Spoleto.

Distance: 51 km/31,6 miles (starting Viore) or 53 km / 33 miles (starting Assisi)
 Ascent/Descent: + 326m -338m

Day 3 Spoleto - Bevagna

The route of today has different versions. There is the easy cycle path route without up and downhill cycling and which goes directly to Bevagna. Or the more strenuous route with biking through a slightly undulating landscape with olive groves. You will already see Montefalco from a distance. At the foot of this town you can choose to continue through the valley directly to Bevagna or to visit first Montefalco (470m a.s.l.)..., but to get to this town you first have to conquer a severe climb. Montefalco is also known as the 'balcony of Umbria', because of its fantastic panorama over the Valle Umbra. Artists like Benozzo Gozzoli and Perugino decorate the Franciscan church, now a museum, with magnificent 15th and 16th century frescoes. Montefalco is well-known for its excellent wines, Rosso di Montefalco d.o.c. and Sagrantino d.o.c.g, produced on the sunny slopes around the town, and of course it is almost impossible to leave the town without tasting them in one of the many wine bars. From Montefalco you have a nice downhill ride to Bevagna, where the medieval square with the two Romanesque churches is a real meeting place for the friendly inhabitants. Your overnight stay is in the centre of the town or just outside the town walls in a  hotel

Cycle Path / easy route

Distance: 35 km

Ascent/Descent: + 42m -206m

Hilly route passing Montefalco

Distance: 37 km

Ascent/Descent: + 395m -517m

Hilly route NOT passing Montefalco

Distance: 39 km

Ascent/Descent: + 292m -456m

Day 4 Bevagna-Assisi

Today a nice ride through the green valley. You can choose to visit Torgiano, which in medieval times was a fortified village. It is situated on the confluence of the rivers Chiascio and Tiber (Tevere) in a fertile area. Torgiano is certainly worth stopping off, which like Montefalco is famous for its excellent red and white wine. You could visit the wine museum with (next-door) the 'osteria' of the Lungarotti family, where you can taste the wines produced in this area. After Torgiano you will cross the valley, cycling along quiet country roads. The first sight of Assisi, perched halfway up the slopes of Mount Subasio is extraordinary. Before reaching Assisi, you can stop for a moment to visit the Franciscan basilica in S.Maria degli Angeli. Under its impressive dome still lies the humble little chapel Porziuncola, where St. Francis once came to pray. To get to the beautiful historical centre of Assisi you have to make a short but steep climb, but wandering through the town you will agree that it was worth effort. After your visit of Assisi you return to your starting hotel

Distance: 51 km / 31,6 miles (passing Torgiano) & 37 km / 23 miles (not passing Torgiano)
