The world of Olive Oil

Meravigliosa Umbria

Walk through the olive groves, EVO oil tasting in an olive oil mill, or cooking class
(DTG003UMB)

From Olive Tree to Bruschetta: Guided Walk with Olive Oil Tasting in Umbria

Experience authentic Umbria with a guided walk through olive groves and woodland, combined with a visit to a traditional olive mill and extra virgin olive oil tasting. A perfect blend of nature, tradition and flavour, showcasing the very best this region has to offer.
The walking tour is suitable for everyone, including families with children aged 6 and over. This is not just a walk, but an educational experience designed to learn and raise awareness about olive oil production. You will be accompanied by an expert environmental guide who will explain the history of the area and how high-quality extra virgin olive oil is produced.
During the walk you will learn to identify local olive varieties, understand proper pruning techniques, seasonal work in the olive grove and many fascinating facts about the world of olive oil. In every season, you will be surrounded by beautiful landscapes, immersed in the colours and scents of the Umbrian countryside.

The walk takes place near a family-run olive mill close to the village of Pozzo, Umbria, in an outstanding area surrounded by olive groves and forests. The mill produces excellent extra virgin olive oil using modern sustainable farming techniques, while respecting centuries-old traditions in an area historically devoted to olive cultivation.
After the walk, you will return to the olive mill for a tasting of DOP extra virgin olive oil served on traditional bruschetta, accompanied by a selection of local products.
A genuine and memorable experience, perfect for the whole family, to discover Umbria through its flavours, landscapes and traditions.
