

Walking in a surprising Umbria (W 002 UMB)

Characteristic medieval towns, an astounding nature and a delicious cuisine

An 8- or 10-day walking tour

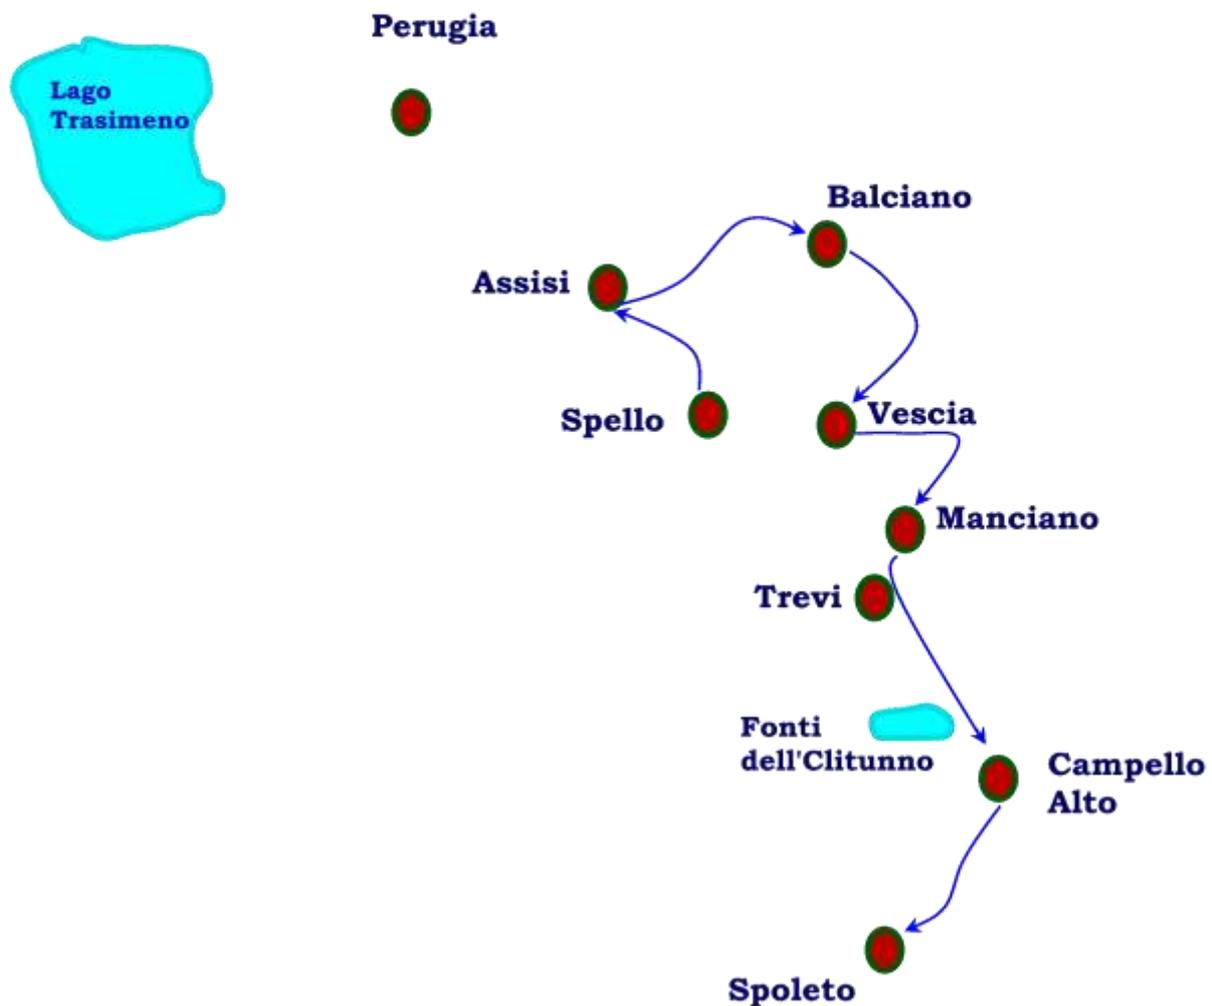

Characteristic medieval towns and villages, an astounding nature and a delicious genuine cuisine are the ingredients of this walking tour. You will through a green, hilly Umbria, also known as the green heart of Italy. Umbria is a region with many faces, where everyday life is mixed with the traditions and spirituality of its past. The tour has an 8- or 10-day version, showing the real Umbria.

This tour starts in the fascinating medieval town of Spello, built on the slopes of Mount Subasio. It is a colourful town with a lively tangle of alleys and atmospheric squares. In some of its monuments, you still feel its Roman past. A walk amongst olive groves will bring you to Assisi. Its mighty stature with ramparts, church towers and palace roofs is already visible from afar. The following days you will walk on footpaths and quiet country roads, through rolling and changing landscapes in which lead you through a succession of marvellous places, medieval villages and cloisters. Your walks will take you through the Monte Subasio nature park, in the lower Apennines, among olive groves and will take you to the little waterfalls of the river Altolina, to the Benedictine abbey of Sassovivo and the Franciscan hermitage, Eremo delle Carceri. You pass the capital town of olive oil, Trevi, and you will walk a stretch of the pilgrimage route 'Way of Saint

Francis'. The tour ends in Spoleto, a town full of life, with many squares, shops with local delicacies and handicrafts. Your overnight stays are mostly in authentic small family hotels and farmhouse B&B's, where you will have a friendly and warm welcome and ...will enjoy the delicious Umbrian wines and dishes.

Daily program 8 days / 7 nights tour

Day 1 Arrival in Spello.

On your first evening you have a briefing and will have the opportunity to discuss your holiday.

Spello has lovely little streets to wander around, colourful decorated with plants and flowers. A very picturesque spot is the Via Torre di Properzio, which ends near the Roman 'Porta Venere', but also the Roman mosaics in the Museum and the S.Maria Maggiore church with the frescoes of Pinturicchio are worthwhile to visit. Your overnight stay is in a  or * hotel in the medieval town centre.

Overnight with breakfast in Spello.

Day 2: Spello-Assisi

Spello is situated on the west edge of the Monte Subasio Natural Park and today you will be walking through this green Park. The route has different variants. The first stretch will lead you through the olive groves on the slopes of Monte Subasio. After about 8 km (475m a.s.l.) you can choose to go straight on to Assisi, remaining more or less on level, or to climb up to the hermitage Eremo delle Carceri (830m a.s.l.) St. Francis and his companions often stayed here and you can visit the cave where Francis used to meditate. After your visit, you descend through the forest to the Porta Cappuccini town gate. Assisi's medieval character is well preserved; the houses, gates and churches are almost all built in the pink-white stone of Mt.Subasio.

The finest architectural feature of the entire abbey is certainly the cloister with the double order columns, surmounted by lily-shaped capitols. Walking through the woods and olive groves you will reach farmhouse B&B in the hamlet Manciano. Also here is an olive oil mill and they produce good olive oil. An extra night in Spoleto to make a loop walk on Monteluco

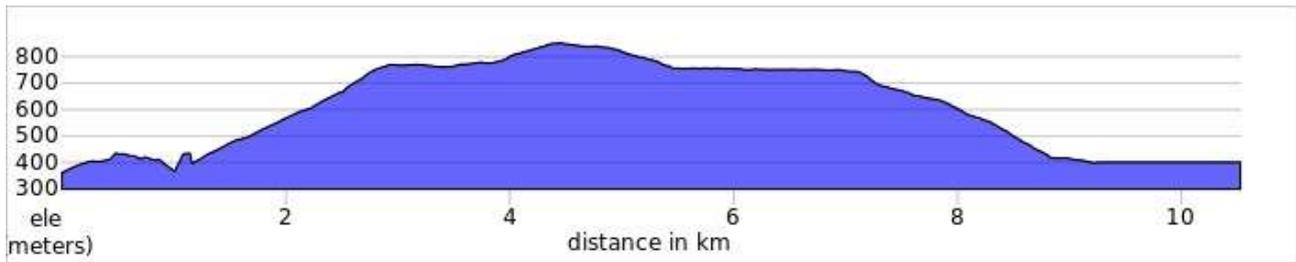

The walk today takes you to Monteluco (Mount Luco). The name 'Luco' (lucus) means 'sacred woods', and signifies that in ancient times the mountain was considered a holy place. From the 5th century hermits lived under Benedictine rule on the mountain. Later the Franciscans also built a monastery here. The evergreen oak wood was always very important for the town and was therefore already a protected area in the Middle Ages. The animals living here include porcupines, wild cats, badgers and squirrels
