

Umbria an eno-gastronomic surprise (WG 003 UMB)

A 5- or 7-day gourmet walking tour

This walking tour for food lovers has the beautiful green and hilly Umbria as a backdrop. It is a perfect combination of walking in panoramic landscapes, exploring around culturally interesting towns and most important of all enjoying the excellent wines and gastronomic traditions of this lovely region. Taste delicacies as black truffle, salami and raw prosciutto of Norcia, wild boar salami, different pecorino cheeses, porcini mushrooms, Castelluccio lentils, red onions from Cannara and certainly try the streetfood sandwich with porchetta (spicy pork). Umbria has also excellent olive oils and wines. The spicy and deep green Umbrian extra virgin olive oil, is produced throughout the region which boasts 5 zones of the Umbria Dop. We only name some of the famous Umbrian wines, like white wines of Orvieto, the red Montefalco Sagrantino wines, the Torgiano rosso riserva and the Grechetto, a typical Umbrian wine, with a pleasant herbal taste. This tour starts in Assisi, a lovely medieval town, built on the slopes of Mount Subasio. Assisi is a charming town offering tourists a wealth of tranquillity and a lot to see. Take the time to explore the town on foot and with the help of our cultural route you will find yourself walking by many impressive medieval monuments, town palaces, shops and fountains, such as the Fonte Oliviera. Leaving Assisi you will walk to Spello, but before reaching this exquisite town, you will make a stop at an organic-winery to taste some wines of the Assisi d.o.c. area. The tour finishes in Spoleto built on a hillside with most of the sites in the compact upper town offering a wonderful mix of treasures from Roman, Medieval and Renaissance times. You will have a cooking class and can make a nice walk through the sacred woods of Monteluco

Day 5 Exploring Spoleto and a cookery lesson

After breakfast you say goodbye to Spello and take the train to Spoleto. This morning you have time to visit this alluring town. There is a lot to see like the duomo to be reached by a scenic stairway. Inside are beautiful frescoes of Filippo Lippi and Pinturicchio. Other sights worth a visit are the Roman house, the San Salvatore church, the Romanesque San Ponziano church, the Rocca Albornoziana sitting on the hilltop high above the town centre, the bridge of the towers (Ponte delle Torri), the Tower dell'olio, the Roman theatre, the archaeological museum.

In the afternoon you have a cookery lesson in your **** star hotel in the old town centre of Spoleto. You will prepare an antipasto and primo. During dinner, you will taste the dishes you cooked this afternoon

Day 6 Monteluco, the holy mountain

From the Ponte delle Torri starts your walk of today. The name is derived from lucus 'sacred woods', and signifies that in ancient times the mountain was considered a holy place. In the 5th century, the hermit Isaac from Antioch lived under the Benedictine rule. Later followed the Franciscans building here a monastery. The evergreen oak wood was always very important for the town and was therefore already a protected area in Roman times and during the middle ages. The animals living here include porcupines, wild cats, badgers and squirrels.
